Tomorrow the Wanamaker Annual Sale of Gloves!

Over 10,000 Pair at an Average of Half Regular Prices

Every pair of gloves in this sale is from our own good stocks. Not a single one was brought in for the event.

They are the gloves that are broken in size ranges, and the patterns that we shall not reorder, and the odd pairs of many kinds left from the season's selling.

They include kid, lambskin, suede, buck, washable capeskin and doe-finished leather, fleece and wool lined gloves, silk, chamois lisle and duplex cotton.

This Being the 216th Anniversary of Benjamin Franklin

would you mind taking a little walk down Arch Street to Fifth and stopping at the opening in the wall of the old Christ Church burial ground?

Stop long enough to read three words on the simple, inexpensive stone—the name of George Washington's great friend and counselor,

B. Franklin

and do not miss the other word under the "B."

Deborah

There were no paved streets when he first came into the city, above Market Street, probably, but he spent his days in trying to make a City, and the influence of his life, with that of Washington, Jefferson, Hamilton and John Adams, laid the foundations, not of a city alone, but of a great nation, yet in its infancy, strong but sturdy, and such to be as long as it adheres to the principles of these Heaven-led, honest statesmen.

They did their best!

None of us is too old to lend a hand to what they began, and the appeal is to the young men and young women of this country, by their education and their principles, to endeavor to improve on what their fathers did to make the world a better place to live in.
